

Below are the words that I wrote on the board during my sermon at Westbrook Church on Sunday, May 30th. There are moments when I am writing on the board and not speaking. This will help you make sense of those moments. -Greg

Ought      Is                      Can                      Will

Creation      Fall      Redemption      Restoration